Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

Building Leadership: Embracing Cultural Values and Inclusion

In partnership with the GSFC Equal Opportunity Programs Office, the Asian Pacific American Advisory Committee (APAAC) is hosting the following educational/awareness activities to commemorate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month:

MAY 2, 2013

TASTE OF ASIA AND PACIFIC ISLANDS

11:30 am - 1:00 pm/Building 8 Auditorium

This event will kick-off Asian Pacific American Heritage Month. It will feature ethnic and cultural performances/demonstrations, food samplings and cultural exhibits. This event is co-sponsored by the Goddard Chinese American Club (GCAC).

MAY 7, 2013

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION FEATURING KEN NIUMATALOLO, NAVY FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

10:00 - 11:30 am/Building 8 Auditorium

Mr. Niumatalolo is an American football coach and former player. He has served as the head football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy since 2007. He played college football at the University of Hawaii. As a quarterback he led the then-Rainbows to their first post-season bowl game in 1989. He's the second person of Polynesian descent to be named head coach of a NCAA Division I FBS college football program, and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level. This event is co-sponsored by the Veteran's Advisory Committee (VAC).

MAY 29, 2013

APAHM LUNCHEON & KEYNOTE PRESENTATION FEATURING DR. JAIWON SHIN, Associate Administrator for the Aeronautics Research Mission Directorate

11:30 am - 1:00 pm/GSFC Recreation Center

Dr. Shin manages the agency's aeronautics research portfolio and guides its strategic direction. This portfolio includes research in the fundamental aeronautics of flight, aviation safety and the nation's airspace system. He also co-chairs the National Science & Technology Council's Aeronautics Science & Technology Subcommittee. Comprised of federal departments and agencies that fund aeronautics-related research, the subcommittee wrote the nation's first Presidential policy for aeronautics research and development (R&D). This event is co-sponsored by the Goddard Chinese American Club (GCAC).
