IMPORTANT TRIP POLICIES

All trip participants must be current members of the Goddard Ski Club. For membership details, visit the Club website <http://gewa.gsfc.nasa.gov/clubs/ski/> or contact the Trip Leader.

Lodging rates are based on double occupancy per bedroom. If you do not have a roommate, the Trip Leader will endeavor to assign you one. If the Trip Leader is not successful in finding a roommate of the same gender, you may pay the increased single room rate or cancel with a refund. The refund amount depends upon the cancellation date and the trip contract provisions (ask Trip Leader for details).

Reservations are accepted on a first-come basis and require deposits. All payments must be made on schedule. This trip requires a $500 per person deposit by October 1 and a final payment by November 20. If (very unlikely) the airline increases fees, these will be added to the final trip payment. If the airfare is reduced the trip price will be reduced accordingly. Refunds for cancellation will only be made after trip completion and to the extent that the Goddard Ski Club is able to recover cancellation expenses. If you have an injury, illness, or other reason for cancellation from the trip, the Trip Leader will attempt to find a replacement, but you are fully responsible for any costs incurred by the Goddard Ski Club.

Each trip participant is personally and solely responsible to ensure that he/she is physically able to ski under the prevailing conditions and that his/her ski equipment is properly maintained. Trip cancellation insurance is NOT provided by the Goddard Ski Club, but is recommended. Cancel For Any Reason insurance must be purchased when the first payment is made. The Goddard Ski Club, its officers, trip leaders, and members are not liable for personal injury, death, or property damages involving participants on any Goddard Ski Club trip.

I HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND, AND AGREE TO THE ABOVE TRIP POLICIES.
